

KAREN PILKINGTON

DIRECTOR OF THE HR DEPT

As Director of The HR Dept Bolton, Karen has a wealth of experience in varying sectors from professional services to manufacturing. As an CIPD qualified HR professional, I'm passionate about assisting business leaders in navigating through the sometimes complex area of employment legislation in order to provide a resolution suited to their business. Clients can be confident of a pragmatic solution including essential hands on assistance where required.

The HR Dept Bolton takes the time to understand your business and provide tailored advice by focussing on what can be done rather than what can't. This personal approach rather than a call centre one ensures that customer service and satisfaction remains at the forefront of all activities
